

§91.121. Complaint Notices and Procedures.

(a) Purpose. This section implements Finance Code §15.409, which requires the Department to maintain a system to promptly and efficiently act on each complaint filed with the Department.

(b) Required Notice.

(1) Credit unions must provide their members with a notice that substantially conforms to the language and form of the following notice in order to let its members know how to file complaints:

“If you have a problem with the services provided by this credit union, please contact us at:

(Your Name) Credit Union

Mailing Address

Telephone Number or e-mail address.

The credit union is incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas and under state law is subject to regulatory oversight by the Texas Credit Union Department. If any dispute is not resolved to your satisfaction, you may also file a complaint against the credit union by contacting the Texas Credit Union Department through one of the means indicated below: In Person or U.S. Mail: 914 East Anderson Lane, Austin, Texas 78752-1699, Telephone Number: (512) 837-9236, Facsimile Number: (512) 832-0278; email: [complaints@cud.texas.gov](mailto:complaints@ cud.texas.gov), Website: www.cud.texas.gov.”

(2) The title of this notice shall be “COMPLAINT NOTICE” and must be in all capital letters and boldface type.

(3) The credit union must provide the notice as follows:

(A) In each area where a credit union typically conducts business on a face-to-face basis, the required notice must be conspicuously posted. A notice is deemed to be conspicuously posted if a member with 20/20 vision can read it from the place where he or she would typically conduct business or if it is included in plain view on a bulletin board on which required communications to the membership (such as equal housing posters) are posted.

(B) If a credit union maintains a website, the required notice or a link to the required notice must be conspicuously posted on the homepage of the website.

(C) If a credit union distributes a newsletter, it must include the notice on approximately the same date at least once each year in any newsletter distributed to its members.

(D) If a credit union does not distribute a newsletter, the notice must be included with any privacy notice the credit union is required to provide or send its members.

(c) Filing, Receipt, and Handling of Complaints.

(1) The Department shall make available, on its public website (www.cud.texas.gov) and at its office, information on how to file a complaint.

(2) A person who alleges that a credit union has committed an act, or failed to perform at act that may constitute a violation of the Texas Credit Union Act or Department rules may file a complaint in writing with the Department. The complainant may complete and submit to the Department the complaint form the Department maintains at the Department’s office and on its public website, or the complainant may submit a complaint in a letter that addresses the matters covered by the complaint form. At a minimum, all complaints should contain information necessary for the proper processing of the complaint by the Department, including, but not limited to:

(A) Complainant’s name and how the complainant may be contacted;

(B) Name and address of the credit union against whom the complaint is made;

(C) A brief statement of the nature of the complaint and relevant facts, including names of persons with knowledge, times, dates, and location; and

(D) Copies of any documents or records related to the complaint. (original records should not be sent with a complaint.)

(3) Anonymous complaints may be accepted by the Department, but the lack of a witness or the inability of the Department to secure additional information from the anonymous complainant may result in the Department's inability to secure sufficient evidence to pursue action against a credit union.

(4) The Department will review all complaints to determine whether they are within the Department's jurisdiction or authority to resolve, and will send an acknowledgement letter to the complainant within five (5) business days of receipt of a complaint. At least quarterly until final disposition of the complaint, the Department shall provide status updates to the complainant and respondent credit union, orally or in writing.

(5) Upon determining that a complaint is within the Department's jurisdiction, the Department will inform the credit union respondent of the complaint and will request a written response from the credit union. Along with a request for response, the Department will transmit to the credit union a copy of the complaint and any attachments. Within fifteen (15) days from the date of the request for response, unless the period is extended by the Department, the credit union shall provide a substantive response and set forth the credit union's position with respect to the allegations in the complaint, which shall include all data, information and documentation supporting its position, or a description of corrective measures taken or intended to be taken. The Department may request and the complainant and respondent shall provide to the Department additional information or further explanation at any time during the review of the complaint.

(6) Once the Department has received the documentation from both parties, the Department will review the information and will process the complaint in accordance with the rules of the Department. The Department will advise both parties in writing of the final disposition of the complaint.

(7) The Department shall maintain a file on each complaint filed with the agency. The file shall include:

(A) the name of the complainant;

(B) the date the complaint is received by the Department;

(C) the subject matter of the complaint;

(D) a summary of the results of the review of the complaint; and

(E) an explanation of the reason the file was closed, if the Department closed the file without taking action other than to review the complaint.

(8) The Department will maintain a database of complaints in order to identify trends or issues related to violations of state laws under the Department's jurisdiction.

(d) Complaints Closed with No Action Beyond Review. Certain complaints and disputes may be closed with no action taken other than to review the complaint. Such complaints may include those that are not within the Department authority to investigate or adjudicate, and which may be referred to as non-jurisdictional complaints. The Department, for example, will not address complaints concerning contractual matters or internal credit union practices that are not governed by the statutes or rules that the Department implements or enforces. The Department also may close without taking action other types of complaints, including undocumented factual disputes between a person and a credit union and complaints involving matters that are the subject of a pending lawsuit. The Department does not offer legal assistance and cannot represent individuals in settling claims or recovering damages. The Department does not own, operate, or control credit unions, and the Department does not establish their operating policies and procedures. Therefore, the Department may close without taking action complaints concerning the range of services a credit union offers, complaints about bad customer service, and disagreements over specific credit union policies, practices, or procedures, or about other matters that are not governed by a law or rule under the Department's jurisdiction. The Department will inform the complainant and respondent credit union when a complaint is closed with no action taken, and will inform them of the reason for closing the case.

(e) Privacy. The information collected from complainants and respondents is solicited to provide the Department with information that is necessary and useful in reviewing complaints received from persons regarding their interactions with a credit union. A complainant is not required to give the Department any information; however, without such information, the Department's ability to complete a review, to investigate, or to prosecute a matter may be hindered. It is intended that the information a person provides to the Department will be used within the Department and for the purpose of investigating and prosecuting a complaint. A person should not include personal or confidential information such as social security, credit card, or account numbers, or dates of birth when corresponding with the Department. If it is necessary to supply a document that contains personal or confidential information, the information should be redacted before the document is submitted to the Department.
