

§93.208. Delegation of Authority.

Unless otherwise provided by law, [any duty imposed on] the commission or the commissioner may delegate [be delegated] to a [duly authorized] representative any ministerial duty imposed on the commission or the commissioner, respectively. The provisions of any rule referring to the commission or the commissioner shall be construed to also apply to the duly authorized representative of the commission or the commissioner.