GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Professional examiner position with responsibility for conducting examinations of above-average to moderate difficulty and smaller credit unions with persistent problems. Acts as Examiner-In-Charge and coordinates and conducts examinations and analysis to determine the financial condition and compliance with statutory requirements, bylaws, and rules. May provide periodic assistance to the Field Supervisor with training and supervising the work of other team members. Leadership qualities permit assignment of larger, team examinations or oversight responsibility for a specific, specialized function of the examination.

Special Note: This job is a career pathing opportunity with the Credit Union Department. It is a succession position, which will replace an existing Field Supervisor for the Department in approximately three years. Please do not apply if you are uncertain as to your willingness to assume that position.
